*Terms and Conditions

VOID WHERE PROHIBITED OR RESTRICTED BY LAW. Valid June 22 through August 28, 2015. Adobe is providing a migration price to channel partners for licenses purchased by customers that have previously licensed Creative Suite 3 (CS3) or subsequent versions ("Eligible Customers") and would like to migrate to Creative Cloud for teams. This migration pricing is valid only for the number of CS3 or subsequent version licenses purchased by an Eligible Customer, if customer has not previously claimed a promotional offer related to migration to Creative Cloud for such licenses ("Eligible License"). Channel partner will determine actual license fees for Eligible Customers. Migration pricing is valid for customer's initial VIP license term after migration. If the initial membership term is 13 months or less, then migration pricing is also valid for the first and second renewal of Eligible Licenses. Migration pricing may not be applied retroactively. Adobe does not make any guarantees with respect to migration pricing offered by channel partners for Eligible Licenses if customer elects to change channel partner.
