Top questions from customers

What is the Autodesk FY20 Q2-Q3 GFP?

Customers can save 20% on the Autodesk Suggested Retail Price (SRP) for industry collections or most individual products when they purchase

- eligible 1-year or 3-year term subscriptions
- with single- or multi-user access
- and submit qualifying associated seats of year 1998 -through 2019 perpetual licenses not on an active maintenance plan (any attached maintenance plan must have expired on or before April 30, 2019 for the perpetual license to be eligible for this offer).

A valid, eligible serial number must accompany each corresponding perpetual license submitted.

Serial numbers must be submitted at: https://www.autodesk.com/campaigns/trade-in

Or the Serial Number submission light box on the applicable Autodesk.com/ subscribe page.

Refer to the "Appendix" for a complete list of qualifying "coming from" and "going to" products.

Will Autodesk offer the full discount if the customer is adding to an existing subscription?

Yes. The promotion offers the full discount percentage and will be prorated when the customer adds a new 3-year subscription to an existing 3-year subscription contract.

What if I have trouble using software subscription?

Subscribers have access to a range of Technical Support options to minimize delays and downtime.

I work from home, the office, and on the road and need my software in all three places. What can I do?

An advantage of subscribing is that customers have Home Use and Global Travel Rights — allowing use of the software virtually anywhere, any time.

What else do I get with subscription?

In addition to the benefits described above, subscribers also have access to collaboration tools, secure storage, faster rendering and visualization capabilities.

They also have access to Administrative Tools, like contract reports, usage reports and more help you keep track of your benefits.

I am not always connected to the internet. Will I lose access to my software?

No! An internet connection is needed to activate software when using a new subscription for the first time. It is then possible to work offline for up to 30 days, at which point it will be necessary to connect to the internet to keep using the software.
