COMFORTABLE WORKING FROM ANYWHERE

ergotron®

Meet the unique needs of employees wherever they work

Hybrid work models are the new normal, with many knowledge workers splitting time between home and the office. Support healthy work environments for hybrid teams by creating adaptable workspaces that promote comfort, collaboration and safe spacing.

“ A HYBRID WORKFORCE IS THE FUTURE OF WORK. ”
 — RANJIT ATWAL, GARTNER SENIOR RESEARCH DIRECTOR

HOME WORKSPACE

Enable the same level of productivity at home with or without a dedicated space. Provide easy movement, more work area and the flexibility to work from any room.

CORPORATE OFFICE

Make the most of in-office time with adaptable workspace solutions that enable collaboration or focused work, while giving remote colleagues a virtual seat at the table.

RETAIN THE BEST TALENT
 More than half of employees want to work remotely at least three days per week, according to SHRM. Give employees the flexibility they desire with home and office environments that make work time productive and enjoyable.

Enable hybrid teams to thrive with flexible workspaces that:

- Promote comfort: Ergonomic workspace solutions easily adapt to individual users to help alleviate aches and pains and make the best use of limited space
- Encourage collaboration: Adjustable worksurfaces and monitor arms support organic collaboration with in-person and remote colleagues
- Support safe spacing: Mobile workspaces enable physical distancing for team meetings or individual work
