

2024 Global Threat Report

One of the most trusted analyses of the modern cybersecurity landscape, the CrowdStrike 2024 Global Threat Report explores the critical events and trends that defined 2023 and the adversaries behind them.

CrowdStrike tracked 34 new adversaries in 2023, raising the total to 232.

Identities are in the crosshairs

75%

75% of attacks to gain initial access were malware-free

↑ 20%

Access broker advertisements increased by 20%

Cloud is an evolving battleground

↑ 75%

Cloud environment intrusions increased by 75%

↑ 110%

Cloud-conscious attacks increased by 110%

84%

84% of attributed cloud-conscious intrusions were conducted by eCrime actors

Today's adversaries are operating with unprecedented speed and stealth

2'07"

2 minutes and 7 seconds was the fastest recorded eCrime breakout time; the average eCrime breakout time was 62 minutes

↑ 73%

Manual, hands-on-keyboard activity increased 73% in the last half of 2023